

WMATA SafeTrack Surge #6

Aug. 1-7

The next phase of WMATA's SafeTrack plan to directly affect the District of Columbia will take place from August 1 through August 7. During Surge #6, trains on Metrorail's Red Line will single track between the Takoma station in the District of Columbia and the Silver Spring station in Maryland. This will have a major impact on approximately 94,000 weekday trips.

There will be a reduction in rush hour service of approximately 75 percent between Silver Spring and the NoMa-Gallaudet station and commuters are advised to seek other routes within or outside the Metrorail system during the peak periods.

Those who opt to use the Red Line during Surge #6 should expect crowded conditions during peak times and longer wait times. Trains will run every six minutes from Shady Grove to NoMa, and every 12 minutes from Glenmont to Grosvenor.

There will be additional Metrobus service on the S9, G8, 80, and P6 routes. WMATA will not provide a "bus bridge" because there is limited single track service. Montgomery County's Ride-On service will provide shuttle buses between Silver Spring and Fort Totten with a stop at Takoma. Shuttle buses will run every 10 minutes from 5:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

DDOT Traffic Mitigation Strategy

DDOT will extend rush hour parking restrictions during a.m. and p.m. rush on the following:

- 1500-3100 Rhode Island Avenue NW to NE
- 1500-3000 North Capitol Street
- 1000-8000 16th Street NW

Extended rush hour times: 7 a.m.-10 a.m. and 4 p.m.-7 p.m.

Traffic Operations will adjust signal timing as necessary.

Traffic Control Officers will be assigned to address congestion at key intersections, including the Fort Totten Metro Station and around Franklin and McPherson Square downtown.

Circulator buses on the Georgetown-Union Station and Woodley Park-Adams Morgan-McPherson Square Metro routes can supplement some Red Line trips.

A construction moratorium will be in effect on certain corridors.

Capital Bikeshare will continue offering its $2 single-trip fare and set up a bike corral at Union Station Monday-Friday from 7 a.m.-11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m.
