

District of Columbia

Bike Program Fact Sheet

SNAPSHOT OF DC BIKE FACILITIES AND INFRASTRUCTURE

- 56 miles of Bike Trails
- 56 miles of Bike Lanes
- 3 miles of Cycle Tracks
- 2,300 Bike Racks installed since 2001
- 1,500 Capital Bikeshare Bikes (DC's premiere Bike Sharing Program)
- 137 Capital Bikeshare Stations
- 84 miles of Signed Bike Routes
- 6.6 mile of Shared Lanes

DISTRICT TRANSPORTATION FACTS¹

- 3% (9,300 daily) of District residents biked to work in 2010
- 12% (35,000 daily) of District residents walked to work
- 38% (113,700 daily) of District residents commuted by public transportation
- 27% (79,100) of District households do not have access to a motor vehicle
- 41% (121,000) of District residents commuted by motor vehicle

DC Travel to Work by Bicycle & Bike Lane Development

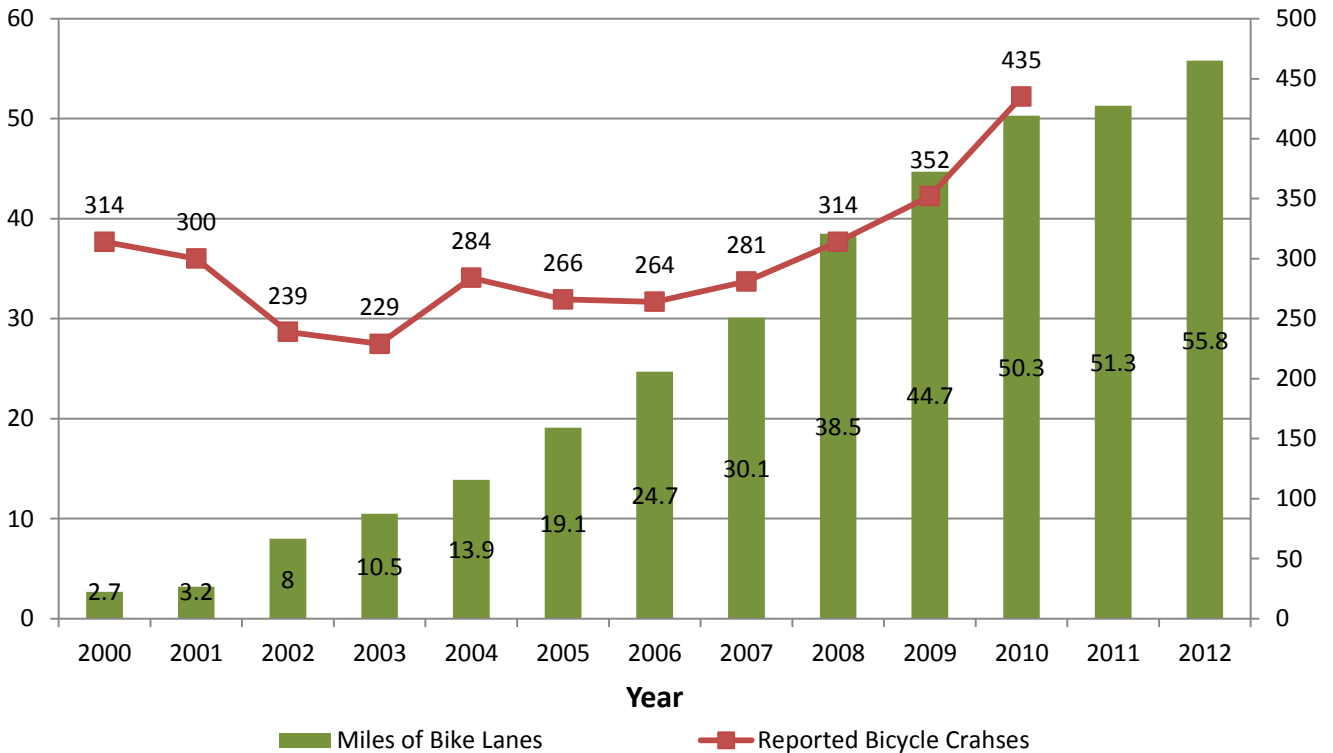

Means of Transportation to Work

American Community Survey 2010

Bike Crashes Relative to Miles of Bike Lanes ^{3,4}

Explanation of Data

- 1: Means of Travel to Work, American Community Survey (ACS) 2010. Data is collected for workers 16 years old and over who reside in DC regardless of their place or work.
3. Miles of Bike Lanes: Data collected by the District of Columbia Department of Transportation.
4. Reported Bike Crash Data: Data collected by the District of Columbia Department of Transportation.
5. Bike and Pedestrian Funding: Data collected by the Alliance for Biking & Walking www.PeoplePoweredMovement.org/Benchmarking